

Mabel Katz, EA, ABA

Mabel Katz's passion is to awaken our consciousness so we can discover who we are and the power we possess to change our lives, businesses, and relationships.

Born in Argentina, Mabel moved to the United States in 1983 and became established in Los Angeles where she became a successful accountant and Enrolled Agent. In 1997 she started her own company, Your Business, Inc., and prospered by helping established businesses grow as well as assisting fledgling entrepreneurs plan and execute financial tax programs and systems.

Mabel's first platform was her book The Easiest Way. She quickly moved to hosting her own radio and television programs. Mabel currently enjoys success as a keynote speaker and seminar leader in great demand throughout the world.

Through an ancient Hawaiian philosophy, Mabel is traveling the world teaching the art of Ho'oponopono. For twelve years she studied intensively with the master Ihaleakalá Hew Len, Ph.D. Mabel is now considered a foremost authority on the art of Ho'oponopono.

With her unmistakable style and grace, she transcends many languages. Her books have been translated into Spanish, Korean, Portuguese, Swedish, German, French, Russian, Hebrew and Romanian. She has authored or co-authored four books, The Easiest Way, Inspiration to Realization, Thank God I, and a Q&A called The Easiest Way to Understanding Ho'oponopono. Mabel is in the midst of writing three new books, and her first children's book.

As a result of her personal accomplishments and her generosity of spirit, Mabel has received acclaim on the local, national and now international levels.
