MABEL KATZ, MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER AND AUTHOR OF 4 BOOKS PUBLISHED IN MORE THAN 20 LANGUAGES, RETURNS HOME TO LOS ANGELES AFTER A SUCCESSFUL TOUR THROUGH SOUTH AMERICA

Los Angeles, June 19, 2017 – Famed speaker Mabel Katz took her message of peace to her native Argentina, as well as to Columbia, Peru and Uruguay. She has also given the Ho'oponopono seminar, which she learned after years of studying with her mentor, Doctor Hew Len, then enhanced it with Zero Frequency®, a method she developed personally, in Tel Aviv, Medellin, Barcelona, Miami and Long Beach, a city near Los Angeles. She will her unyielding work as an ambassador of peace when she visits countries like Serbia, Croatia, India, Romania, Hungary, Japan and Israel this coming fall.

ABOUT MABEL KATZ

Mabel Katz is a writer and inspirational speaker from Argentina living in the United States. She set aside a successful career as an accountant, as well as a famous TV and radio show, to dedicate herself 24 hours a day to learning Ho'oponopono, an ancient Hawaiian art of solving problems, from her teacher Dr. Ihaleakalá Hew Len. She later created seminars, infused with simple and practical tools, which she has taught to diverse audiences, everyone from business people, to children and teens, children with autism and Down Syndrome, even men and women in prison. She was invited to speak at senates and other government entities, and gave a speech at the United Nations in Vienna to a multi-ethnic audience from the Middle East. She was also honored as Peace Ambassador, named Dame Mabel Katz in 2013 by the Orthodox Knights Hospitalier of St. John of Grand Priory of Russia, and in 2015, she received the prestigious Public Award of Peace. She has authored 4 books, which have been translated in 20 languages, including Spanish, Mandarin, Japanese, Hungarian and Italian.
