Recognized peace ambassador and acclaimed author on Ho'oponopono – the ancient Hawaiian art of problem solving in India speaking at 19th World Peace Congress

Mabel Katz is an internationally acclaimed speaker, author, and seminar leader, and peace advocate recognized as a leading authority on Ho'oponopono; the ancient Hawaiian art and practice of problem solving. Katz will slated speak at the 19th World Congress on "Peace Education for Good Governance and Non-Violence" held by the International Association of Educators for World Peace (IAEWP) October 24-26, 2016, bringing the practice of Ho'oponopono, to India for the first time.

For years, Mabel Katz has done outstanding work in support of children and world peace. All of her endeavors were founded on the principles of service and helping others. As a result, her good works have been acknowledged by the venerable Order of the Orthodox Knights Hospitaller of St. John – Russian Grand Priory, who bestowed upon her the title of Dame.

Katz's prior work on Spanish language radio and television and as a business consultant garnered her the label of the "Latino Oprah Winfrey." Katz's passion for helping others succeed through education and enlightenment has led to her international advocacy, through the art of Ho'oponopono, of attaining world peace by first achieving individual peace.

Katz has presented at the UN, been honored with the 2012 Mil Milenios de Paz Peace Flag, acknowledging her world-peace initiative, Peace Within Is World Peace, and was officially recognized as one of the world's pre-eminent Peace Ambassadors. In January of 2015 she was awarded the prestigious Public Peace Prize.

Now, Katz's belief that "peace within is world peace," and that peace can be attained only through education has led to an invitation to speak at the IAEWP's 19th World.

The IAEWP is a non-profit, non-political, non-governmental organization geared towards the attainment of international understanding and world peace through education, operates under the mandate of the UN, and is linked to UNICEF. Katz will give a speech titled "The Peaceful Path to Abundance," in which she will highlight the most important concepts of Ho'oponopono.

In addition to speaking at the conference, Katz will host India with Mabel Katz, a bilingual (English and Spanish) tour of the most spiritual cities in India from October 26-November 3. The nine-day journey of "discovery, freedom and peace" will be an immersive introduction to Ho'oponopono while visiting the cities of Mumbai, Delhi, Agra, and Varanasi. She will also present an entire day Ho'oponopono seminar in Delhi on November 29th. For more information and reservations for "India with Mabel Katz," CLICK HERE.
